

LEADERSHIP YELLOW SPRINGS

Application For Enrollment

SELECTION CRITERIA

Applicants to Leadership Yellow Springs will be eligible if they meet the following criteria:

- Have a commitment to participating in public service, civic, or religious organizations,
- Are interested in serving a community organization, and
- Have a commitment to developing leadership skills.

The Selection Committee recommends an educational background of at least senior status in high school.

The Leadership Institute of Yellow Springs does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, age, sex, marital status, disability, national origin or ancestry, religion, economic status or political affiliation.

The Selection Committee will choose up to fifteen people for each year's program and is committed to seeking applicants with broad diversity in backgrounds and experience. Candidates will be accepted based on the selection criteria. Due to limited enrollment requirements and/or similarities of backgrounds of candidates, it may be necessary to ask some applicants to defer their attendance to the following program year, at which time they will have the highest entrance priority.
